

Join The Gift of Sight Movement

Proposed NSPB Hospital and Research Centre at Karkardooma

As a part of its stated objective and mission to provide state of the art in Ophthalmic care, NSPB is establishing an Eye Hospital and research centre in Karkardooma, East Delhi.

Bult in an area of over 8600 sq.ft. in 4 floors this hospital would provide the best of Ophthalmic facilities and care.

This will also facilitate research in various sunrise areas.

This Institution aims at bringing the advancement of science and technology to elevate the sufferings of the multitudes of visually challenged persons and also take effective steps to prevent the occurrence of any visul challenge wherever possible. In short this Institution will work to provide the

Gift of Sight

*Donations to NSPB are exempt from Income - Tax under Section 80 G of the Income-Tax Act.
Visit us at: www.nspb.in*

An estimated 21 million people in India have Cataracts of whom 9 million are cataract Blind

These Millions can fortunately get back their vision if timely intervention is achieved.
You can help make the difference from Darkness to Light.

NSPB - India is a recognized as a Center for Research and Development by the Department of Science & Technology, Govt. of India.

